DESIGNATION OF RECIPIENT(S) OF A RESIDUAL SETTLEMENT AND ANY RETROACTIVE BENEFIT DUE under article 38 of the UNJSPF Regulations and section J.3 of the Administrative Rules

PURPOSE OF FORM PENS.A/2

All participants in the Fund are encouraged to complete form PENS.A/2 to specify the recipient(s) of any residual settlement that may become due under article 38 of the UNJSPF Regulations, Rules and Pension Adjustment System and section B.5 of the UNJSPF Administrative Rules, as well as of any retroactive due but unpaid benefit owing to them at the time of their death under section J.3 of the UNJSPF Administrative Rules.

In the absence of the form, these amounts will be paid to the estate of the deceased participant.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Please do not fill out form PENS.A/2 until you have read the notes below

The information provided below is subject to change. For updated information, please refer to www.unjspf.org/for-clients/residual-settlements and section J.3 of the UNJSPF Administrative Rules.

WHEN DOES A RESIDUAL SETTLEMENT BECOME PAYABLE?

A residual settlement becomes payable if:

- (a) The participant died in service and had no survivors (e.g. a spouse, former spouse, child under the age of 21, disabled child or secondary dependant) who are entitled to a benefit under articles 34, 35 bis, 35 ter, 36 or 37 of the UNJSPF Regulations;
- (b) The participant died after service but before electing a benefit, provided that he or she had five years or more of contributory service and no survivors (e.g. a spouse, former spouse, child under the age of 21, disabled child or secondary dependant) who are entitled to a benefit under articles 34, 35 bis, 35 ter, 36 or 37 of the UNJSPF Regulations;
- (c) The participant died during entitlement to a retirement, early retirement, deferred retirement or disability benefit, provided that (i) no further benefits are payable to his or her survivors (e.g. a spouse, former spouse, child under the age of 21, disabled child or secondary dependant) who are entitled to benefits under articles 34, 35 bis, 35 ter, 36 or 37 of the UNJSPF Regulations; and (ii) the total amount of the benefits already paid to and on account of the deceased participant was less than the participant's own contributions plus interest;
- (d) The participant had survivors (e.g. a spouse, former spouse, child under the age of 21, disabled child or secondary dependant) who are entitled to a benefit under articles 34, 35 bis, 35 ter, 36 or 37 of the UNJSPF Regulations and, following the death of the participant and the death or termination of entitlement of all survivors, the total amount paid by the Fund is less than the amount of the participant's own contributions plus interest.

WHEN DOES A RETROACTIVE DUE BUT UNPAID BENEFIT ARISE?

A retroactive due but unpaid benefit arises if, at the time of the participant's death, a benefit was payable but had not yet been disbursed to the participant. Such benefits include retirement, early retirement, deferred retirement and disability benefits or a withdrawal settlement that was due but not paid at the time of the participant's death, including payments that may have been returned by the participant's bank but were properly payable.

WHO CAN BE DESIGNATED AS A RECIPIENT ON FORM PENS.A/2?

You may designate any individual or institution as your recipient(s). If you designate an institution, you must confirm with that entity that it is able to receive donations as a designated recipient. If the Fund is unable to make the payment to a designated institution or the institution refuses to accept the payment, the amount will be distributed among any other surviving designated recipients when payment is due in the ratio of their own shares or, failing such surviving designated recipients, to your estate.

HOW MANY RECIPIENTS CAN BE DESIGNATED?

You can designate as many recipients as you wish. If more than one recipient is designated, the recipients will share the residual settlement and/or retroactive due but unpaid benefit equally, unless otherwise indicated. The share of a designated recipient who may predecease you will be distributed among any surviving designated recipients in the ratio of their own shares.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF YOU DO NOT COMPLETE FORM PENS.A/2?

If there is no duly completed, dated and signed PENS.A/2 in the Fund's records, any residual settlement and/or retroactive due but unpaid benefit will be paid to your estate.

This information is provided to assist you in completing form PENS.A/2. If there is any ambiguity, inconsistency or conflict between the information provided herein and the UNJSPF Regulations, Rules and Pension Adjustment System, the Regulations, Rules and Pension Adjustment System shall prevail.

For further details, please consult www.unjspf.org/for-clients/unique-identification-number.

The pension number field is a required field on the form. Your pension number can be found on your pension statement or in the welcome letter from UNJSPF. Your new designation will be applicable to the pension number (participation account) that you specify in this field.

The form must be completed in full, dated and signed to be valid.

You may alter your designation of a recipient at any time by submitting a new form, which will supersede all previous designations.

It is suggested that you keep a copy of the completed form with your other important documents.

It is your responsibility to keep your designation up-to-date so that it always reflects your current situation. HOW TO SUBMIT FORM PENS.A/2

The dated and hand-signed form must be returned to the secretary of your Staff Pension Committee or to UNJSPF if you are a retiree or a staff member of the United Nations family.

Most registered users of MSS can submit UNJSPF forms and other documentation electronically under the “MSS Document Upload” tab of their MSS account. Users must download the relevant UNJSPF form under the “E-Forms” tab and complete, print, date and hand sign it. Then they must scan the form and upload it, either in JPG, JPEG or PDF format, and send it to UNJSPF. Once the form has been successfully submitted, there is NO NEED to submit a physical version of the form to UNJSPF. Go to the “About member self-service (MSS)” web page, available at www.unjspf.org/resources/about-member-self-service, for a tutorial on how to upload documents using MSS.

Please note that access to the “MSS Document Upload” tab may be restricted, at the request of some UNJSPF member organizations. In such cases, the staff of such organizations will not see the “MSS Document Upload” tab as one of the MSS menu options. In any case, all participants should first check with their employing organization to ascertain the correct process for submitting documents to UNJSPF.

You can also mail the physical form, which must be duly completed, dated and hand-signed, directly to UNJSPF at any of the addresses below:
